PROFESSION-SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS FOR CATEGORIES STP1, STP2, AND STP3 (ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTARY REQUIREMENTS AS PRESCRIBED BY THE PRB CONCERNED)

☐ Accountancy
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the services of the foreign professional are essential for the development and advancement of the profession in the Philippines.

☐ Aeronautical Engineering
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the employment or engagement of the foreign professional will not jeopardize any Filipino Aeronautical Engineer.

☐ Agricultural and Biosystems Engineering
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the expertise of foreign professional is necessary and advantageous to the Philippines on the aspect of transfer of technology and specialization.

☐ Architecture
There should be a locally–secured professional liability insurance or malpractice insurance or their acceptable equivalent in bond form commensurate with the nature and magnitude of his/her project involvement and compensation.

☐ Chemical Engineering
There shall be documents submitted attesting that the foreign professional is recognized as expert in the specific field of chemical engineering.

☐ Chemistry
There must be documents submitted attesting to the expertise or competence of the foreign chemist in a specific field in Chemistry, provided, that he/she is invited by the Republic of the Philippines for consultation or for a specific project as evidenced by an Employment Contract or Service Agreement. For those contracted as professors or lecturers to teach Chemistry subjects, there must be proof/s completion of doctorate degree (PhD, DSc or equivalent) in Chemistry or allied field.

☐ Customs Brokers
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the services of the foreign professional are urgently needed due to the absence or inadequacy of Filipino professional for the promotion or enhancement of the profession in the Philippines.

☐ Electrical Engineering
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that no qualified Filipino is available for the work or undertaking that the foreign professional is being hired or commissioned for. There must be proof showing that the requirements, standards and qualifications for obtaining a license or certificate of registration as an electrical engineer in the country of which the foreign applicant is a citizen of must not be lower than those prescribed under R.A. No. 7920 (New Electrical Engineering Law).

☐ Electronics Engineering
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that no qualified Filipino is available for the work or undertaking that the foreign professional is being hired or commissioned for.

☐ Foresters
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the services of the foreign professional are urgently needed and importantly necessary due to lack or inadequacy of available Filipino specialist/experts for the purpose of advancement or promoting or securing the practice of profession.

☐ Guidance and Counseling
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the services of the foreign professional are urgently needed and importantly necessary due to lack or inadequacy of available Filipino specialist/experts for the purpose of advancement or promoting or securing the practice of profession.

☐ Interior Design
The firm or institution engaging the services of the foreign professional must establish that the latter's expertise is unique, useful to the local industry and will redound to the transfer of information and technology as well as the establishment of international standards in the field of interior design. The Employment Contract Service or Service Agreement must also contain an express stipulation that the foreign and Filipino interior designers working jointly on a special project shall divide the professional fees and other charges from said project equitably, according to their participation in or professional services rendered to the project. It must also provide that all documentation expenses, taxes and other liabilities incurred on the shared project shall also be borne equitably by both foreign and Filipino interior designers. Further, it must also state that the foreigner working jointly with Filipino interior designers shall sign contracts, designs and other credits together with his/her Filipino counterpart, and which fact must at all times be acknowledged in all marketing and promotional materials and reportorial compliance for the project, whether prepared and/or submitted locally or abroad. All residual earnings shall also be equitably shared between foreign and Filipino interior designers.

☐ Landscape Architecture
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the expertise of foreign professional is necessary and advantageous to the Philippines on the aspect of transfer of technology and specialization.

☐ Mechanical Engineering
Those who may be granted STPs are the following: foreign mechanical engineers, installation, commission or graduate engineers called in for consultation of for a specific design or installation project not requiring more than three (3) months residence in the Philippines within a twelve (12) month period; and foreign mechanical engineers who are employed as technical officer, training officers or consultants in special branches of mechanical engineering. In the latter case, the following must be submitted: (a) a certification from the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the services of the foreign professional is necessary and advantageous for the country, particularly in the aspect of technology transfer and that no Filipino mechanical engineer and/or mechanic in the country is competent, able and willing to perform the services for which the foreigner is desired for; and (b) any competent document certifying that the foreigner must be in the prior employ of the engaging firm, or its foreign business partner outside of the Philippines for a period of not less than one (1) year immediately preceding the date of engagement.

☐ Naval Architecture
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that no qualified Filipino is available for the work or undertaking that the foreign professional is being hired or commissioned for.

☐ Nutrition-Dietetics
There must be proof submitted that the foreign professional is either an internationally known Nutrition-Dietitian or expert in any branch or specialty of Nutrition and Dietetics; or that his /her services are urgently necessary for lack of or inadequacy of available local specialists or experts for the promotion and advancement of the practice of Nutrition and Dietetics through transfer of technology.

☐ Optometry
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the services sought to be offered by the foreign professional will promote the advancement of the optometry profession in the Philippines. There must be evidence submitted attesting to the fact that the foreign professional is internationally known to be an expert or specialist in any of the branches of the practice.

☐ Pharmacy
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the services of the foreign professional are urgently needed and importantly necessary due to lack or inadequacy of available Filipino specialist/experts for the purpose of advancement or promoting or securing the practice of profession.

☐ Professional Teachers
There shall be submitted competent documents attesting that the foreign professional has excelled and gained international recognition and is widely acknowledged as an expert in his/her respective field of specialization.

☐ Psychology
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the services of the foreign professional are important and necessary either due to lack or inadequacy of available local specialists or experts or in recognition of his/her potential contribution to the promotion and advancement of the practice of psychology or psychometrics through the transfer of technology.

Real Estate Service
☐ A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the services of the foreign professional are urgently needed due to the absence, or inadequacy of Filipino professional for the promotion or enhancement of the profession in the Philippines
☐ A photocopy of the Professional Identification Card (PIC) and Accreditation Certificate (AC) to independently practice the real estate service profession for the Filipino professional counterpart as registered practicing professional.
☐ A copy of the agreement between the Foreign real estate service professional and the Filipino professional counterpart as to the scope of work or assignment involved including the agreed professional fee.
☐ Profession Indemnity Insurance/Cash or Surety Bond, in the case of a Real Estate Broker and a Private Real Estate Appraiser.
☐ An official copy of the foreign law or international agreement to which the Philippines and the foreign state or country are both signatories establishing the existence of reciprocity for the practice of real estate service profession or any equivalent document or an official document that will establish the fact that Filipinos are permitted to get a license and practice therein.
☐ Other requirements as may be prescribed by the Board.

For renewal of application:
☐ A report detailing the undertakings/accomplishments of the applicant Foreign Real Estate Professional for his/her previous STP as attested by the Filipino licensed Real Estate Professional counterpart;
☐ Proof of Income Tax Payment;
☐ Proof of attendance in the CPD Programs/Courses of the Foreign Real Estate Professional as required in the existing guidelines;
☐ Other requirements as may be prescribed by the Board.

☐ Respiratory Therapy
A certification issued by the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization of the PRC stating that the employment or engagement of the foreign professional is essential for the development of the respiratory therapy profession. There is evidence submitted that the foreign professional is an internationally recognized expert or with specialization in any branch of Respiratory Therapy.